By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

For Diſſolving this preſent Parliament, and declaring the Calling of another.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS We have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy Council, to diſſolve this preſent Parliament, which now ſtands prorogued to Tueſday the Fourteenth Day of May next: We do for that end publiſh this our Royal Proclamation, and do hereby diſſolve the ſaid Parliament accordingly: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgeſſes, and Commiſſioners for Shires and Burghs of the Houſe of Commons, are diſcharged from their Meeting and Attendance on Tueſday the ſaid Fourteenth Day of May next. And, being deſirous and reſolved, as ſoon as may be, to meet our People, and have their Advice in Parliament, do hereby make known to all our loving Subjects our Royal Will and Pleaſure to call a new Parliament; and do hereby further declare, That, with the Advice of our Privy Council, We have this Day given Order to our Chancellor of Great Britain to iſſue out Writs in due Form for calling a new Parliament, which Writs are to bear Teſte on Thurſday the Eighteenth Day of this Inſtant April, and to be returnable on Thurſday the Thirteenth Day of June next.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the Seventeenth Day of April, 1734, in the Seventh Year of Our Reign.

God ſave the KING.

By the KING,

A PROCLAMATION,

In Order for the Electing and Summoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland.

GEORGE R.

WHereas We have in Council thought fit to declare our Pleaſure for ſummoning and holding a Parliament of Great Britain on Thurſday the Thirteenth Day of June next enſuing the Date hereof: In order therefore for the electing and ſummoning the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, who are to ſit in the Houſe of Peers in the ſaid Parliament, We do, by Advice of our Privy Council, iſſue this our Royal Proclamation, ſtrictly charging and commanding all the Peers of Scotland to aſſemble and meet in the Room commonly called the Borough Room in our City of Edinburgh, on Tueſday the Fourth Day of June next, between the Hours of Twelve and Two in the Afternoon, to nominate and chuſe the Sixteen Peers of Scotland, to ſit and vote in the Houſe of Peers in the ſaid enſuing Parliament, by open Election, and Plurality of Voices of the Peers that ſhall be then preſent, and of the Proxies for ſuch as ſhall be abſent, ſuch Proxies being Peers and producing a Mandate in Writing duly ſigned before Witneſſes, and both the Conſtituent and Proxies being qualified according to Law. And the Lord Clerk Regiſter, or ſuch two of the principal Clerks of the Seſſion as ſhall be appointed by him to officiate in his Name, are hereby reſpectively required to attend ſuch Meeting, and to adminiſter the Oaths required by Law to be taken there by the ſaid Peers, and to take their Votes, and immediately after ſuch Election made, and duly examined, to certify ſy the Names of the Sixteen Peers ſo elected, and ſign and atteſt the ſame in the Preſence of the ſaid Peers the Electors, and forthwith to return ſuch Certificate into our High Court of Chancery of Great Britain. And we ſtrictly charge and command, that this our Royal Proclamation be duly publiſhed at the Market Croſs at Edinburgh, and in all the County Towns of Scotland, Twenty five Days at leaſt before the Time hereby appointed for the Meeting of the ſaid Peers to proceed to ſuch Election.

Witneſs Our Self at St. James's the Seventeenth Day of April, 1734, in the Seventh Year of our Reign.

God ſave the King.

St. James's, April 17.

His Majeſty in Council was this Day pleaſed to order that the reſpective Convocations of Canterbury and York, ſhould be forthwith diſſolved; and that the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, ſhould iſſue Writs for electing new Members for the ſaid Convocations, which Writs are to bear Teſte the 26th of this Inſtant April, and to be returnable on the 21ſt of June next.

Whitehall, April 19.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Nobility, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders, at a General Aſſizes held at Maryborough, the 30th of March, 1734, for the Queen's County in Ireland, before the Honourable Sir John St. Leger, and John Waynright, Eſq; Barons of your Majeſty's Court of Exchequer.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave at this Time of univerſal Joy, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of her Highneſs the Princeſs Royal to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

As every faithful Subject in your Majeſty's Dominions has a real and true Senſe of this happy Union, the Proteſtants of Ireland have particular Reaſon gratefully to render their hearty Thanks to your Majeſty for chuſing an Alliance with the Houſe of Orange, to whom they owe their Deliverance from Popery and arbitrary Power, at a Time when no human Means, other than the Virtue and Reſolution of his late Majeſty King William (of ever glorious Memory) could have prevailed.

May this our Happineſs be compleated by a numerous Offspring, endowed with all the truly noble Qualities inherent to their illuſtrious Anceſtors, and thereby the Name of the Founder of our bleſſed Revolution be preſerved to the lateſt Ages.

The following Addreſs having been tranſmitted by his Grace the Duke of Dorſet, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars, beg Leave, in the humbleſt Manner, to congratulate your Majeſty on the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

An Alliance ſo well calculated to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe, and to ſecure to your People the Continuance of that Happineſs they at preſent enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, cannot fail to fill the Hearts of all your faithful Subjects with Joy and Gratitude, as it gives them the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of your paternal Care and Affection for them.

It is the greateſt Pleaſure to us of this Church and Nation to ſee a Daughter of Great Britain, adorned with all the Virtues and Accompliſhments for which her Royal Mother is ſo juſtly admired, beſtowed in Marriage on a Prince, who recalls to our Minds the many and ſignal Obligations we lie under to his glorious Predeceſſor King William the Third, whoſe Memory muſt be ever dear to Ireland. To his victorious Arms, taken up in the Cauſe of Liberty, it is (under God) indebted for the Recovery of its religious and civil Rights, and all the Bleſſings of your Majeſty's Reign. And our Univerſity is particularly beholding to the ſame great Deliverer, that inſtead of Error and Superſtition, uſeful Knowledge is now cultivated, and the Principles of true Religion and Loyalty are taught among us.

May Almighty God continue theſe invaluable Advantages to us, by granting your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign over us, and crowning it with all Happineſs both publick and domeſtick. May He ſhed his choiceſt Bleſſings on our gracious Queen; and in His good Time, may every Branch of the Royal Line, by Alliances equally honourable in themſelves, and acceptable to your People, give give us the like Opportunity with the preſent, of addreſſing our unfeigned Thanks to him, and our ſincere Congratulations to your Majeſty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Harwich, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Egmont, and Sir Philip Parker, Bart. their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Harwich, ever ſenſible of your Majeſty's conſtant Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, beg Leave to expreſs our ſincere Joy, that your Majeſty has called to your Alliance his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange; a Prince, whoſe Virtues equal his high Deſcent, and to whoſe illuſtrious Houſe theſe Nations owe, not only the Preſervation of their religious and civil Rights, when invaded by Bigottry and arbitrary Power, but the ſecure Enjoyment of them, under your Majeſty and your Royal Poſterity.

Your Majeſty's Care for continuing the Bleſſings we now poſſeſs, to the remoteſt Time, is ſo conſpicuous, that we ſhould be wanting to ourſelves, if we did not in this publick Manner joyn with our Fellow Subjects, in returning our humble Thanks for the Concluſion of theſe happy Nuptials, which can have no Allay but from the Loſs theſe Kingdoms will ſuſtain by the Abſence of a Princeſs endowed with all Perfections; the Ornament and Delight of this Nation.

Done at a Court of Common Council this 8th of April, 1734.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City of Cheſter, having been preſented to his Majeſty; his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City of Cheſter.

WE your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Merchants, and other Inhabitants of the City of Cheſter, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Royal to a Prince of the Houſe of Orange, ſo univerſally celebrated for his great Accompliſhments, that he adds Glory to the illuſtrious Family from whence he ſprung; a Family ever renowned for diffuſing Happineſs to Mankind, which greatly reſcued the Netherlands from Slavery, and gave Great Britain her glorious Deliverer King William, whoſe healing Preſence in this Place is yet freſh in the Minds of many of us, who ſaw him embark with his victorious Troops to redeem our diſtreſſed Proteſtant Neighbours from Popery and Slavery, and has ſecured what we ſhall eſteem our greateſt Felicity, the ſtill riſing Glories of your Majeſty's moſt happy Reign, which none but ſuch as are in Love with Slavery, and incapable of being happy, can traduce. May Heaven have ſtill further Bliſs in Store for this auſpicious Union between ſo noble a Prince and a Princeſs, whoſe native Virtues are improved by your Majeſty's wiſe Dictates; and the perfect Example of your Royal Conſort.

That the Happineſs of a numerous Iſſue from this Marriage may be tranſmitted to the lateſt Ages, and your Majeſty partake in the Joy of ſeeing them ripe in the Virtues of their great Anceſtors, and long enjoy the ſerene Bleſſings of all the Comforts you beſtow, is the zealous Prayer of your Majeſty's moſt faithful and moſt loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of the Port, Town, and Corporation of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty; which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,
The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council of your Majeſty's Ancient Port, Town and Corporation of Liverpool, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, (in Council aſſembled) under the Common Seal of the ſaid Corporation, this 3d Day of April, 1734.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty;

TO permit us to congratulate your Majeſty on the Nuptials of the Princeſs Royal and his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

We of this trading Town are too ſenſible of the many happy Effects of the Glorious Revolution (accompliſhed for us by King William the Third) ever to be wanting in our moſt grateful Acknowledgements either to his Memory, or to the Perſon of a Prince deſcended from his Royal Houſe: And we ſhould be inconſiſtent with ourſelves, if we did did not own this Royal Marriage to be not only an Inſtance of your Majeſty's Goodneſs to your People, but the ſtrongeſt Proof of your great Wiſdom, Care and Watchfulneſs over their Religious and Civil Liberties to late Poſterity.

Your Majeſty, during the whole Courſe of your Reign, has convinced us, and all dutiful Subjects, that you make the Laws of our Country the only Rule of your Government.

And that your Majeſty may continue to be aſſiſted in your Councils by thoſe who have always approved themſelves faithful to your Royal Perſon and Illuſtrious Family, zealous for the Liberties, true Intereſts, and fair Trade of your Kingdoms, are the ſincere Wiſhes of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Pembroke, having been preſented to his Majeſty; his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes, of the ancient Corporation of Pembroke, in the County of Pembroke.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of Pembroke, humbly beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our hearty Congratulations upon the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

It is with the utmoſt Satisfaction that we ſee another Alliance perfected with that illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau, from whence ſo many Heroes have deſcended, who have been Aſſertors of Liberty and the Terror of Tyrants; but none ſo particularly endeared to us as our late glorious Deliverer King William, whoſe Memory muſt be ever grateful to all the good People of theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms, which, when at the very Brink of Ruin, were, under God, by him reſcued from Popery, Tyranny, and arbitrary Power, and our Religion, Laws and Liberties, and all that are or can be dear to any People, ſo fully ſecured in the Eſtabliſhment of the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Family, from whom we enjoy all the Advantages that can be deſired by a free People, under the moſt wiſe, mild, and juſt Adminiſtration of your Majeſty, who governs by no other Views than the Good of your People.

Were we not ſenſible of theſe many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's Reign, we ſhould be exceedingly wanting in the Duty we owe to your Majeſty and our own Happineſs; but much more to our Poſterity, did we not make it our ardent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty may long reign in the Hearts of your Subjects, and be ever victorious over your Enemies; that you may live, long live, to ſee many Princes deſcend from this happy Marriage, to be an additional Bulwark to the Proteſtant Intereſt and the Liberties of Europe; may their Royal Highneſſes conſtantly enjoy a Happineſs as exalted as their Births, and may all your Majeſty's Royal Family daily increaſe in Honour and Proſperity, for your Majeſty's great Satisfaction, the Good of theſe Kingdoms, and the Benefit of Mankind. Theſe, may it pleaſe your Majeſty, are the ſincere Deſires of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County Palatine of Lancaſter, having been preſented to his Majeſty; his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, met at the Aſſizes held for the County Palatine of Lancaſter, on Saturday the 23d Day of March 1733.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen, met at the Aſſizes held for the County Palatine of Lancaſter, moſt humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange.

We are truly ſenſible of your Majeſty's great Goodneſs and Wiſdom in diſpoſing of the Princeſs Royal to a Prince whoſe natural Abilities, and great Accompliſhments, render him every Way qualified (in concert with your Majeſty and the other Proteſtant Powers) to continue to us the Liberties we at preſent enjoy.

As we are daily more and more confirmed of the many ineſtimable Bleſſings which we (with the reſt of your Majeſty's Subjects) enjoy under your Majeſty's wiſe, mild, and auſpicious Government; ſo it is with the high-

eſt Gratitude we remember the Name of that Great Prince King William the Third (of immortal Memory) who glorioufly effected the happy Revolution which reſtored to theſe Kingdoms (and we truſt will tranſmit to lateſt Poſterity) the free and full Enjoyment of all our Civil and Religious Rights, by the Settlement of the Crown in your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family.

We earneſtly wiſh that his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, and his Royal Conſort (who is poſſeſs'd of all princely Virtues) may be crowned with Happineſs, and bleſſed with a numerous Iſſue, whereby the Name of Naſſau Orange may continue famous to future Ages.

The following Addreſs of the High Sheriff, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Flint; and likewiſe of the Mayor, Recorder, and Bailiffs of the Borough of Flint, having been preſented to his Majeſty; his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive the ſame very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, and the Gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the County of Flint, and likewiſe of the Mayor, Recorder and Bailiffs of the Borough of Flint.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects beg Leave to joyn in the Common Joy of congratulating your Majeſty upon the happy Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with the Prince of Orange.

An Union between a Princeſs whom Nature has adorn'd with the moſt amiable Virtues, which have received the higheſt Embelliſhments by the wiſe Inſtructions and perfect Example of her Royal Parents; and a Prince whoſe univerſal Accompliſhments add Glory to the illuſtrious Family from whence he Sprung, gives the fulleſt Proſpect of Bliſs to the whole Proteſtant World: The Houſe of Orange have ever been the great Bulwark of true Religion and virtuous Liberty, which bravely delivered the Netherlands from the cruel Yoke of Spain, and gave Britain her immortal Deliverer King William, and thro' him the Perfection of our Bliſs in your Majeſty's moſt mild and auſpicious Reign. That the Happineſs of Mankind may be tranſmitted to lateſt Ages by this illuſtrious Marriage, and that your Majeſty may long Live to ſee the happy Effects of it, and of all the Bleſſings you have given us, and that the Hearts of all your Subjects may be ever as full of loyal Gratitude as ours, is the earneſt Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, obedient, and faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Campbell, Eſq; Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of your Majeſty's Ancient Kingdom of Scotland, do humbly beg Leave to ſhare in the univerſal Joy of the Nation, on Account of the Marriage of the Princeſs Royal with his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange. An Alliance with a Prince of the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau, ſo juſtly fam'd for great Men, who have been the Aſſertors of publick Liberty, and the eminent Supporters of the Proteſtant Intereſt of Europe, adds a Strength to the glorious Cauſe of Liberty and Religion, that cannot fail to give the greateſt Satisfaction to theſe Nations, who, in a great Meaſure, owe the many Bleſſings we now enjoy, under the mild Government of ſo good and gracious a Sovereign, to our Deliverance from Popery and Slavery, by a Prince of that illuſtrious Houſe, King William the Third of glorious and immortal Memory.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

As we have the Honour to repreſent the trading Part of this Nation, we humbly beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity to expreſs our great Thankfulneſs for your Majeſty's Royal Care and Favours beſtowed on this Part of your United Kingdom. The good Effects of the Application of the publick Funds, deſtined for the Encouragement of our National Fiſheries and Manufactures, by your Majeſty's Direction, are univerſally and ſenſibly felt: Theſe Improvements owe their Riſe to one of the earlieſt Acts of your Majeſty's happy Adminiſtration, and their Succeſs is intirely owing to the Continuance of your Royal Countenance and Protection, in being moſt graciouſly pleaſed to direct, from Time to Time, the proper Methods for the further Improvement and Extention of theſe great National Benefits, which ſo evidently appear to be be the peculiar Objects of your Majesty's Royal Care.

May your Subjects, on all Occasions, express their Gratitude and Sense of the manifold Blessings we enjoy under the present happy Administration, by their Loyalty, Zeal, and Affection for your Majesty's Person and Government: May your Reign be long and prosperous, and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Family to sway the Sceptre over us to latest Posterity; this is the most sincere and hearty Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most loyal, most faithful and dutiful Subjects and Servants, the Annual Committee of the Convention of the Royal Burrows of Scotland.

Edinburgh April 9, 1734.

Signed in their Presence, and by their Appointment, by P. Lindesay, Preses.

The following Address of the French Protestant Refugees has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Newcastle one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

SIRE,

LES Protestants François Réfugiez, vos très fideles Sujets, demandent, avec le plus profond Respect, à vôtre Majesté la permission de lui témoigner la joye dont leurs cœurs sont pénétrez pour l'heureux Mariage de son Altesse Royale avec Monseigneur le Sérénissime Prince d'Orange. Ce choix si digne de la Sagesse et de la Religion de vôtre Majesté, fait l'applaudissement de l'Eglise Protestante, et nous fait révérer de plus en plus en Vous le Desenseur de la Foi. Nous partageons, Sire, avec vos autres Sujets les avantages inestimables de vôtre heureux et juste Gouvernement: Et nous recevons des marques particulieres de la bonté de vôtre Majesté. La Religion, la Reconnoissance, et nôtre propre Interest nous attachent au service de vôtre Majesté, par des liens indissolubles. Nous ne cesserons jamais de demander à Dieu, par nos prieres les plus ardentes, la conservation de vôtre Personne Sacrée, et la prosperité de vôtre auguste Famille, et de vôtre Regne.

The following Address of the City of St. Andrews has been presented to his Majesty by John Drummond, Esq; Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the City of St. Andrews.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of your ancient City of St. Andrews, in Common Council assembled, do humbly beg Leave, upon this most joyful Occasion of the happy Marriage of the Princess Royal to his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, to express our utmost Satisfaction with an Alliance so very agreeable to all your Majesty's good Subjects. The Thoughts of being once more united with a Prince of the illustrious House of Nassau, equally famous by their Valour and Wisdom in the Defence of publick Liberty, and Support of the Protestant Interest in Europe, raises in us the highest Esteem of your Majesty's Goodness, by whom this Event is happily brought about.

We also most humbly beg Leave to embrace this Opportunity to express and testify the most grateful and just Sense of our own Happiness under your Majesty's most benign and most auspicious Reign; and that by the Establishment of the Crown of these Realms in your Majesty's Royal Family, these Blessings deriv'd to our Country by the glorious King William the Third, are secured to us and our Posterity; and when it so fully appears, that every Act of your Majesty's Administration tends so much to the Happiness of your People, we cannot but entertain a most grateful Sense of the Blessings we enjoy under a Sovereign so good and gracious.

That the God of Heaven may continue to bless your Majesty, and direct your Councils; that your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous; that your Subjects may ever be loyal and dutiful, becoming the Sense of so many Mercies; and that there may never be wanting one of your Royal Family to reign over us, is the earnest and fervent Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most dutiful, most faithful, and most loyal Subjects and Servants.

Wakefield, the 10th of April, 1734.

WE the Dissenting Ministers in Yorkshire, think it expedient at this critical Juncture to declare for ourselves and our respective Congregations, that we are firmly attach'd to his Majesty's Person and Government, in Opposition to all the avowed Enemies of both, and to the crafty Insinuations of Malecontents, who would propagate a groundless and dangerous Distinction betwixt a Court and Country Interest; and that we shall exert ourselves for the Choice of such Gentlemen to represent us in the ensuing Parliament, as are well affected to the King and his Royal House, and true to the civil and religious Liberties of their Country.

Signed by Forty Ministers.
